Why are female engineers needed?

What is your research area?

What inspired you to become an engineer?

How did you get started in engineering?

What is an average day on the job like?

“I sought out strong female role models, in work and in my personal life.”

What is your top tip for girls considering Engineering?

What is your research area?

What key attributes and skills help you in your role?

Have you faced any gender-related challenges and how did you overcome them?

Why should young women choose engineering as a career?

“You get to work on real-world problems that are really important to humanity.”